

Sandford St Martin 2024 Awards

Eligibility Criteria

- All entries must have been broadcast for the first time between 1 January and 31 December 2023 and should be sent to us 'as transmitted'. Please do not submit compilations.
- Entries will be accepted from UK or ROI-based broadcast or production organisations, news providers, freelance technicians, and independent producers. Entries must have been publicly available to a general UK audience.
- All entries and programme files must be completed and received by midnight on Wednesday 31 January 2024. Please note this deadline is final and late entries are barred automatically.
- Non-English content must be either dubbed or subtitled in English.
- If you are unsure which category is the most appropriate for your entry, please contact the Awards Administrator at info@sandfordawards.org.uk.
- Please note, if your entry is shortlisted for an award, we will require a HD (video) or WAV (audio) copy of your entry before you can progress to the final judging stage.
- To help the Sandford St Martin Trust in its running of the Awards, please ensure any copyright materials (audio, video, text or images) have been approved for use by the Trust in the awards' judging, presentation and promotion of the Trust's work by the copyright owner or an exclusive licensee. If it is difficult for your entry to meet that requirement, please email us to review the specifics of your situation.
- There is no entry fee.
