

NOMINATION FORM:

Sandford St Martin 2021 Trustees' Awards for "Broadcasting in the Time of Corona"

Details:

You can use this form to nominate a broadcaster, organisation or an individual based in the UK who has used broadcasting to respond to or explore coronavirus, the pandemic and/or its impact through a religious lens. Nominees must be based in the UK or R.O.I.; their work must have been available to a UK audience and first broadcast, screened or published between January 1 and December 31, 2020.

Eligible broadcasting projects could include:

- network, local, online or community news reports, factual, drama or entertainment programmes telling original stories about or in response to COVID-19 that directly engages with faith or issues of belief
- community and faith organisations or an individual who have used broadcasting to celebrate, worship or otherwise address people's religious or spiritual needs during the pandemic

When you make a nomination, please include as much detail as possible. Of particular importance are:

- the nominee's name (personal or organisational)
 - contact details
 - a description of the work being nominated
 - a summary of the impact made: this could include audience numbers, or how the project affected or was received by the target audience
-

Nominator's (your) Name:
Nominator's Email:
Nominator's Telephone Number:

As a general guide, the Content Award is aimed at attracting entries from experienced, professional or regulated broadcasters and those working in the media.

Judges for the Community Award will be looking to recognise community or non-professional broadcasting projects.

Please tell us whether your nomination is for the Content Award or the Community Award .
Content Award:
Community Award:

Title or name of the work you are nominating:

Date of first broadcast / screening/ publication / event:
Channel / Station / Website / Platform:

Description of nominated entry:

Why are you making this nomination?

Please describe the impact this broadcasting project has had or why you think it deserves to be considered for an award.

Contact details for nominated entry

Contact name:
Email:
Telephone number:

We take data protection seriously and your rights are important to us. You can read our full Privacy Policy by visiting <https://sandfordawards.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/Privacy-Policy-2018.pdf>